

BTA NEWSLETTER: January 2010

Next meeting February 11th, 2010 at 6:30 pm

The new bow lockers are now completed and are beautiful. A big thank you goes to Eric Thomas, his friend John, and Moose for the work they did on the lockers. A big thank you also goes to Steve Kevek for the beautiful stone work for the wood burning stove. Eric has his own cabinet business for those of you who may be in the market.

The Die Hard Challenge on Sundays is underway; as is the Indoor Bowhunter League on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday; and the Free Kids Instructional League on Thursday; and Adults Only Friday Fun Nights. The Cabin Fever Shoot was held in January. Attached is a copy of the shoot results. You can also see the results at the Clubhouse. The next indoor shoot is the Valentine Shoot on February 13th & 14th. Bring your Valentine!

The Free Kids Instructional League is really low on supplies and arrows. If you have any equipment you would like to donate for the kids to use, please bring it to the club. Look for a barrel or box to put your donations in. If there isn't one around, you can leave it with a note or tell Dennis. Dennis and Jim Jones will re-fletch any arrows that need repairs for the kids.

Jim from Wildwood Archery is now working out of his garage, since losing his archery store space at Rock'n Robin's. He also shoots on Wednesday evenings during the Indoor Bowhunter League. He may also have a business card posted on our bulletin board with more information (in the hallway in the Clubhouse).
